www.mcui-uc.org.uk

Founded in January 1903, the Motor Cycle Union of Ireland (Ulster Centre) Limited is the governing body for Road Racing, Short Circuits and Trials within the 9 counties of Ulster. It consists of 27 affiliated clubs/bodies which, together with a number of other appointed officials, form the Council of the Centre. The Council meets on the first Monday of each month in the Chimney Corner hotel, Newtownabbey, Belfast at 7.30pm. The Business of the Centre is conducted by specialist committees appointed by the Council at its Annual General Meeting. The two sporting committees are the Tarmac Committee, which looks after road racing and short circuits and the Trials Committee, which looks after trials. The key Centre contacts are:
